 \checkmark

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or The Registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended April 30, 2011, could not be filed within the prescribed time period due to the additional time needed to incorporate the financial results of the Registrant's recently-acquired Edgetech insulating glass spacer business. The completion of this acquisition was reported on the Registrant's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Commission on April 5, 2011, and its amendment to such Current Report filed on May 10, 2011.

Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.

	Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
			Yes ☑	No o
	why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made. Results of operations for the Registrant's 2011 Second Quarter may be significantly changed from the 2010 Second Quarter because of the acquisition of the Edgetech insulating glass spacer business. Results of operations are still being calculated and are therefore not quantifiable at this time. Quantitative information regarding such changes in the results of operations will be included in the Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended April 30, 2011, which the Registrant expects to file with the Commission within the time period prescribed in Rule 12b-25(b).
